ARCHAEOLOGICAL DIG AT THE JOB LANE HOUSE (Ages 10-12)

The Friends of the Job Lane House (FJLH) offer a chance for Bedford children ages 10 - 12 to participate in an on-site archeological dig. Children who participated in this activity last year dug and learned more about how this colonial family lived from the artifacts which they found. Children also learn about other more famous archaeological digs. FJLH hope that this year's crew will find fragments of pottery, tools, bricks, nails, and other hand-made or very old personal items. Participants will keep a daily notebook and learn how archeological finds are documented in a report. Who knows what else might be learned based on what participants find? It will be a hands-on experience through 300 years of history.

MINI BARN RAISING (Ages 6-12) with Tom Musco & Deb D'Amico

The Teamwork and Timbers program is a one-of-a-kind educational program of the National Barn Alliance. It is designed as an exercise of teamwork as the children raise a one-quarter size barn model. These types of community barn raisings were common in New England during the 18th and 19th centuries. Along the way, children learn about types of wood, history of rural structures, parts of a barn, and most importantly, why teamwork is critical—one person cannot raise a barn. Unknowingly, they also use their math, science and engineering skills to raise the frame with success. It is a 3-D puzzle that teaches students (both young & old) about how barns were made, touching upon science and humanities. A short film about the history of New England barns will be viewed and discussed before the barn raising.

Director Amy Budka

This is a 4 week musical theatre production experience. Participants will work on all the different aspects of musical theatre performance—singing, dancing, character development and stage blocking. Participants also participate in designing and crafting scenery, props and costumes. The play is chosen with the group members in mind and every cast member has at least a few lines. Cast members must be at rehearsal every day, so check your family vacation schedule before making a commitment to Summer Stock. Occasionally some members may be asked to stay later than 1:00 PM. There are typically two performances during the final week—one in the afternoon for Summer Adventures and one on Thursday evening, August 6 for family, friends and the community.
